Text Passage: Ruth 1:6-21

⌚ James 3:14-16; Hebrews 12:15

_____ becomes the downfall of many good men and women, because it is a sin that does not show itself so quickly.

Many sins in our life, if you went back and looked at the root, you would find that bitterness is what caused it.

“Springing” means to illuminate, to bring to light.

“_____” means sharp or poison.

REASON #1: REMOVE _____ EVEN IF YOU
_____ BEEN WRONGED.

When you open up your life to the sin of bitterness, you are asking for _____ to follow.

REASON #2: REMOVE _____ EVEN IF YOU
_____ YOU HAVE BEEN WRONGED.

When you allow bitterness to remain in your heart and you refuse to get it right, you are allowing the devil to have _____ in your life.

Being _____ is a natural result of being out of God's will.

When you hang onto bitterness, it always has _____.

When you allow that bitterness to stay in your heart, _____ will follow.

CONCLUSION:

④ Acts 7:54-60

Put away bitterness and get victory by _____.

④ Ephesians 4:31-32

One of the primary attributes Christ has is _____.

Bitterness always gets and invites company. If you harbor bitterness in your heart pretty soon it will be joined by lots of other sins that you never intended to invite into your life.

No matter what has hurt you in the _____, it does not have to destroy you _____.

Destroy the root of bitterness before it destroys you and defiles many others. You cannot afford to hang on to the sin of bitterness.
